

TERM 2, WEEK 4 UPDATE

Dear Parents and Carers

On Friday, our Junior Choir (Year 2 and 3 students) put on a brilliant performance at the Fremantle Eisteddfod. They came third in their choral category!

For this group of students, it was their first ever performance on a stage, outside of our school and it was a fabulous performance! We are very proud of the students and congratulate not only them, but also our amazing music teacher, Ms Sudhakaran.

There is so much to be proud of about this achievement;

- Each student gives up their own time, 8 am to 8:30 am on Wednesday mornings, to rehearse.
- They nominated themselves to join the choir - no child is excluded, and anyone who wants to join can. If other Year 2 or 3 students would like to join, you are very welcome too!
- Their choral category at the Eisteddfod included choirs with students under 15. They performed against choirs much older and more experienced than them.

On Friday, the Year 4 students in Room 28 and Room 37 did an excellent job presenting the Senior Assembly.

Their item was based around 'Star Wars Day', May the Force/Fourth.

Well done to all students and their fabulous teachers, Miss Burkhalter and Ms Matheson. It was terrific to see them speak confidentially, act openly and have a lot of fun in the process!
